5 SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 96-4(x) reads as rewritten:

6 "(x) Confidentiality of Records, Reports, and Information Obtained from Claimants,
7 Employers, and Units of Government. – For purposes of this Chapter, the term "confidential 8 information" means any information in the records of the Division of Employment Security that 9 pertains to the administration of the Employment Security Law, including claim information as 10 defined in 20 C.F.R. Part 603, and any information that reveals the name or any identifying 11 particular about any individual or any past or present employer or employing unit, or that could 12 foreseeably be combined with other publicly available information to reveal any such 13 particulars. ~~Disclosure~~

14 Confidential information is exempt from the public records disclosure requirements of 15 Chapter 132 of the General Statutes. Confidential information may only be disclosed as 16 permitted in this subsection. Any disclosure and redisclosure of confidential information ~~shall~~ 17 must be consistent with 20 C.F.R. Part 603 and any written guidance promulgated and issued 18 by the U.S. Department of Labor consistent with this regulation and any successor regulation.
19 To the extent a disclosure or redisclosure of confidential information is permitted or required
20 by this federal regulation, the Department's authority to disclose or redisclose the information 21 includes the following:

- 22 (1) Confidentiality of Information Contained in Records and Reports. – (i) 23 Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, it shall be unlawful for any person 24 to obtain, disclose, or use, or to authorize or permit the use of any 25 information which is obtained from an employer, individual, or unit of 26 government pursuant to the administration of this Chapter or G.S. 108A-29.
27 (ii) Any claimant or employer or their legal representatives shall be supplied 28 with information from the records of the Division to the extent necessary for 29 the proper presentation of claims or defenses in any proceeding under this 30 Chapter. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any claimant may be 31 supplied, subject to restrictions as the Division may by regulation prescribe, 32 with any information contained in his payment record or on his most recent 33 monetary determination, and any individual, as well as any interested 34 employer, may be supplied with information as to the individual's potential
